

Fine Arts – Photo-Video-Digital Image Processing Study Program / Photo-Video Department

The Fine Arts - Photo-Video-Digital Image Processing Study Program pursues comprises theoretical and practical subjects which are meant to assure a complex training. Also, the study program forms artists and professional image makers which use as a support the new media of visual communication and expression. The educational approach is promoting, at the highest level, a solid conceptual knowledge of the new media and the practice of the exploration capacity within the field of the technical image.

Specific competencies

Among the essential competencies obtained by the study program's graduates, we mention:

- the creative use of the visual language's elements specific to photography, video art and the art assisted by the computer
- elaboration and development of artistic projects specific to the creative industries by the use of the new ways of expression and visual communication

Career opportunities

The professional career options of the study program's graduates include:

Freelance artist / creative practitioner within the field of photography and video /professional makers of image within the mass-media (photo reporter, cameraman, editor) / graphic and web designer / teacher within the field of art education.